

BRIDE & GROOM DANCES

Choosing your important first dance together as husband and wife can be challenging. One method of choice is to agree on a song that has special personal meaning for the two of you. It might be that first memorable dance that you had together when you began dating, or a soundtrack song from a movie that you both enjoyed. The lyrics of the song should have special significance to reflect how you feel about each other. Here are the most popular dances that bride and grooms selected this past year:
